

February 18,2019

Meeting called to order at 7:31 P.M. by Randy Bishop. Randy led us with the Pledge Allegiance and then with a prayer.

Recognized first time attendees Bruce and Nicole Premier, Jeff Bergmann, Dick Johnson and Jim Mouch.

Gregg Valerio gave the February Treasurer's Report.

Randy asked for prayers for Cherie's mother who is in the hospital.

Secretary minutes from last month were read and Randy also told the audience to go to the aconservativeunion.org website to read minutes since the projector was not fixed. Barb Bradford moved and Vicki Bishop seconded the motion and it passed unanimously to accept the minutes as read.

While we can't support anyone running for office we will vet them and give out voter guides based on answers given to our questions.

Candidates will be graded from A thru F. We can support President Trump since he is the incumbent President. Our #1 goal is to re-elect President Trump.

State House . Senate 38. House 22R-16D.

Thursday June 20, 2019 at Shanty Creek is our fundraiser, a guest speaker is currently being sought. We have 2 or 3 that we are contacting and hope to get someone in the near future.

Christian Marcus spoke on the role of 1st district committee and that the 105 state house (our district) has 2 openings. Christian from Antrim and Sue Fox from Charlevoix are running for the 2 spots. Christian wants to make sure we put up conservatives.

Special guest was Ken Borton from Otsego county who may run for Tristan Cole's seat in the house 105th. Ken talked to us about himself.

He is pro-life Christian conservative. Currently serves as the head commissioner in Otsego county. Member of the NRA and belongs to Free E Church. Ken has several websites including Snowmancam.com and a family website KenBorton.com. Feel free to view either.

Rob Bargy moved to close the meeting and Doc Hoadley seconded motion, passed meeting closed at 9:05 P.M.

Respectfully submitted

Gregory A. Valerio
